

DETAILS COMPLETE FOR GREAT STRIKE

N. Y. Labor Leaders Confident Over 180,000 Workers Will Quit Wednesday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Labor leaders today worked out details of their plans for the walk-out of union workers, which they confidently expect to occur next Wednesday.

The public, meanwhile, looks hopefully to the sessions of the State board of conciliation and arbitration, starting tomorrow, at which an attempt will be made to adjust the differences between the traction company and the striking car men.

One hundred and fifteen unions, with about 180,000 members, have already voted to stop work Wednesday, in support of the car men, Ernest Bohm, secretary of the Central Federated Union, announced.

Labor leaders today estimated that 350,000 would walk out, explaining it is not their intention to bring out all union workers. The unions more directly connected with the city's transportation are to answer the call.

Ready To Join. Many unions outside the city have notified union leaders, the latter declare, that they are ready to join the sympathetic strike. Several unions of New Jersey have voted to go out, but have been urged by the leaders here to stay at work and supply financial aid.

Police Commissioner Woods today sent out 350 "routinized" policemen with patrolmen to accustom them to the duties they may have to perform. In the event of strike rioting, these men will take the place of regular officers, who will be withdrawn for strike duty.

Milk wagon drivers struck today, and Organized Cabmen, of their union, declares that 6,000 will quit Wednesday if their demands are not met.

FUNERAL TOMORROW FOR C. A. MANSUY

Was for Many Years in Counsel's Office of Reclamation Service.

Charles A. Mansuy, employed for years in the chief counsel office of the United States Reclamation Service, died at his residence, 132 East Capitol street Saturday.

Mr. Mansuy was a native of Toledo, Ohio, from where he was appointed to a position in the War Department in this city, afterward being transferred to the Reclamation Service. While thus employed he attended the National College of Law and upon graduation was appointed an assistant counsel in the same service.

He attended many important legal conferences for the Government and took a prominent part in the legal conference at Salt Lake City in July, 1914. He also was assigned to the Denver office of the Reclamation Service.

Mr. Mansuy was a member of the office bowling league and of the Home Club of the Interior Department. He was a member of the Holy Name Society of Holy Comforter Church, of which he was at one time treasurer.

Funeral service will be held at Holy Comforter Church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The pallbearers will be C. G. Cowlick, Bartholomew Daly, Adam A. Wechsler, Charles A. Rordan, John H. Tellen, and Fred A. Garges.

"LITTLE AIR LADY" DIES OF APPENDICITIS

Isla Tudor, Thirteen, Had Made Many Flights.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Isla Tudor, thirteen years old, who died from an attack of appendicitis on Saturday at the home of her parents in Brooklyn, was well known to aviators. She was regarded by them as the youngest girl aviator and was referred to as the "little air lady."

Miss Tudor was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tudor. When she was born her father was one of the representatives of a wild animal show, then appearing at Coney Island. She was named in the arena in the presence of twenty-seven lions.

In late years Mr. Tudor joined the aviation corps in England and his daughter was with him on some of his preparatory flights. It was her custom to fly over the houses and when they flew over the houses and British spectators how.

To Train Aviators. NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—W. Earl Dodge, wealthy sportsman and member of the Aero Club of America, has authorized the Aero Club of America to select for him sixteen college men, whom he will train in aviation for national defense.

Mr. Dodge will pay all the expenses and will establish an aviation camp at Jacksonville, Fla., during the winter months and on Long Island in the spring.

British Deny Military Damage Was Done by Zeppelins in Last Raid

London Calm Following Saturday's Attack — Officials Cite Destruction of Three Giant Craft as Proof of Effectiveness of Air Defenses.

BERLIN, Sept. 25.—Loss of two Zeppelins in Saturday night's raid on England was officially admitted by the admiralty today.

The admiralty reported that the Zeppelins bombarded London and other places of military importance, including Nottingham and Sheffield. Everywhere large fires were observed by the Zeppelin crews and some anti-aircraft batteries were silenced. All the Zeppelins were subjected to an extraordinary anti-aircraft fire.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The German admiralty report on Saturday night's Zeppelin raid on England is full of the usual misstatements, said the press bureau today in passing the German account for publication. The press bureau especially denied that any British batteries had been damaged or that damage had been done to any places of military importance.

With three of Germany's biggest and best types of Zeppelins brought down on English soil within as many weeks, Britons today believed London is now more secure against air raids than ever before, despite the fact that the last two raids were made with a greater number of aircraft than ever before.

Military officials declare that the air defenses of London have stood the supreme test in repelling the raids of raiders which attacked the city on the night of September 2 and again Saturday night.

In the first instance an aeroplane brought one of the super-Zeppelins tumbling to the ground in flames. Latest reports indicate that anti-aircraft guns scored the hits on the two big airships which were destroyed Saturday night. The latest estimate of casualties put the number of men, women, and children killed in the raid at thirty. One hundred and ten were injured. Of this number twenty-eight were killed and ninety-nine injured in the metropolitan district of London.

Fifteen Craft In Raid. Fourteen or fifteen airships took part in the big raid Saturday night, the last official statement to be issued by General French declared. Only three of the Zeppelins approached London for an attack, however, and they were driven off by the anti-aircraft guns.

The two airships brought down fell near the village of Mangold. Bodies of the crew of one of the airships were found scattered about their burned craft, badly charred. Two men, comprising the crew of the second, were made prisoners by a lone constable, who was the first to reach the scene of the wreck, and then turned over to the military authorities.

Thousands saw the first Zeppelin, which was entirely destroyed, fall like a flaming comet through the sky. Sight-seers flocked to Essex county throughout Sunday and today to view the wreckage of the big air cruiser. The motors and other parts of the Zeppelin, less seriously damaged, were gathered together by members of the Royal Flying Corps, however, for inspection, and souvenir seekers were kept at a distance.

Residents of the Essex villages where the raiding monsters were sent to their doom are absolutely unmoved by the visit of the Zeppelins, there was cheering and rejoicing when the airships, comelike, made their fiery descent to destruction. But after the night of the raid was over and the Zeppelins lay, scattered, a shattered mass of twisted iron and steel, there was little comment.

One of the machines fell within half a mile of a village with a population of barely more than 1,000. And every one of these persons holds an indifference which amounts to lethargy regarding the dangers to which they are exposed by the raiding German fliers.

Three airships brought to the ground within three weeks by English gunners seems to have instilled in them a certain confidence that they will be protected, no matter what comes.

Absence of Military Damage. Expressions of commendation for the advance in the methods of defense adopted for London and other sections of England came from the press and officials alike today. In most of the areas where the airships were noted, eyewitnesses declare, there is an absence of military damage and injury to residents that is remarkable.

Searching for souvenirs rather than a discussion of the effect of the raid, interested inhabitants of the districts recounted by the dozen, but they are passed over lightly.

Unprecedented aerial activity is reported on all fronts along with the Zeppelin raid.

Two French fliers made the trip from France to Essen, where the Great Krupp works are located, a journey of more than 250 miles, where they dropped twelve bombs and returned safely. French reports also declare fliers of that nation brought twenty-three German craft to earth. Great Britain adds a claim of five German aviators brought down, a total of twenty-eight. Berlin makes a statement that twenty-four allied machines were shot down—twenty on the Somme front. The statement from Berlin admits the loss of six machines, and London admits the loss of five.

Factories in the districts of Rombach and Thionville, in Alsace-Lorraine, were targeted for forty-six bombs, a French report says. Calais reports the repulse of a Zeppelin which flew over that seaport and was driven off by anti-aircraft guns.

SENTENCE 300 DAYS FOR HAVING WEAPON

A sentence of 300 days in jail was imposed today by Judge Aukam in the Police Court upon George Davis, colored, who pleaded guilty to carrying a concealed weapon. The maximum sentence is one year in jail.

Davis was arrested near Fourteenth and U streets northwest Saturday night by Crossing Policemen Jenkins.

The colored man was accused of handling a gun in a menacing manner in the crowds at the street railway junction point. He made no defense. When examined by Assistant District Attorney Ralph Given, Davis acknowledged serving a penitentiary sentence for shooting a relative.

The person and of William Cook, colored, accused of carrying a razor, was taken when the defendant testified that he was taking the razor to a barber to have it sharpened. The man was later sentenced to thirty days on the charge of assaulting Henry Young.

Walter Spriggs, who also was arrested Saturday with a razor in his possession, will be tried tomorrow morning before Justice Aukam.

Coast Artillerymen Chalk Up High Scores

The forty-five members of the coast artillery of the District national guard, who have been on the rifle range at Congress Heights for five days, have surprised the commanding officers by their excellent scores. There are a number of crack marksmen among the artillerymen, and their showing on the range practically assures them places on the brigade team.

In addition to making unusually good records with the rifle at 300, 500 and 600 yards, the artillerymen also have given a good account of themselves with pistols.

Capt. A. C. Compton, Coast Artillery, U. S. A., is instructing the citizen-soldiers. Capt. W. W. Burns is the commanding officer of the company, with Lieuts. Charles Baxter and Howard W. Hodgkins.

NEW U-BOAT CRISIS FACED BY GERMANY

Bethman Hollweg's Overthrow Is Sought by Advocates of Submarine Warfare.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—A great political crisis is slowly developing in Germany, says the correspondent at Amsterdam of Reuters Telegram Company.

The Pan-Germans, before the opening of the Reichstag, are making every effort, the correspondent says, to overthrow Chancellor von Bethmann Hollweg. The Berliner Tageblatt is quoted as saying:

"Tension in the atmosphere of imperial politics has reached such a high point that a discharge must follow if the empire is not to suffer lasting damage."

Reuters' correspondent says articles in the independent National Correspondent show that the Pan-Germans are fighting for a policy of ruthless submarine war, the only obstacle to which is the imperial chancellor.

A conference of the Socialists of the German empire has adopted by a vote of 251 to 5 a resolution declaring the country must be defended until its enemies are prepared to conclude a peace guaranteeing the political and territorial integrity and the economic development of Germany, according to a telegram from Berlin received at Amsterdam and forwarded by the Reuters Telegram Company.

The resolution is said to have condemned strongly the machinations and demands of those who wish to make the war aims of conquest. This attitude, it is contended, strengthens the resistance of Germany's opponents and tends to prolong the conflict.

The resolution declared also that the Social Democracy placed the interests of its own people in the forefront of the war aims, and demanded respect for the vital interests of other peoples.

The conference expressed its regret that the efforts of the Socialists for peace had not met the desired response from the countries at war with Germany, as not only enemy statements but the official representatives of French socialism and of the English Labor party had declared themselves hostile to peace. Responsibility for prolonging the war was placed by the conference on those opposing peace, and it was demanded that the German government should continually endeavor to terminate the war and give the people the peace they had long desired.

Approval of the action of the Socialists in the Reichstag in voting for Germany's war credits was expressed by the conference.

REQUESTS HEBREWS BE GRANTED LEAVE

Rabbi Maurice Abramson, of the Ohav Shalom Synagogue, announces that he has sent letters to President Wilson and the various members of his Cabinet, asking that all members of the Hebrew faith who are employed in the Government departments be given leave of absence for the two holy days, Rosh Hashanah, the new year, and Yom Kippur, the day of atonement.

The new year services will begin at sundown Wednesday. There will be morning and afternoon services Thursday and Friday. On Thursday Rabbi Abramson's lecture subject will be "What is Truth?" Friday's subject is to be "The Light of Religion." There will be a special program of prayers and religious songs by an augmented choir.

On new year, or the day of judgment, as it is sometimes called, the Hebrew is judged by his God for his deeds of the past year. Silent reflection and prayer occupy the day. The day of atonement is celebrated ten days after Rosh Hashanah, and also continues for two days in the orthodox temple. On this day the faithful Hebrew will abstain from food and drink for twenty-four hours as an atonement for his sins of the previous year.

Dr. George Silverstone will preach Thursday at the synagogue, corner Fifth and I streets, and at the Presbyterian Temple. Friday he will preach at the synagogue at Four-and-a-half and E streets southwest.

CHARITY BALL GAME PROMISES LAUGHS

National Press Club and Board of Trade to Play for Militia Relief Fund.

The greatest exhibition on earth for the small sum of "two bits" (early Victorian slang for 25 cents), aside from the fact that Major Raymond Pullman appears as umpire, will be the baseball game to be played Wednesday at American League Park between teams of the National Press Club and the Washington Board of Trade for the benefit of dependent families of District militiamen.

Everybody who knows any one of the players declares he knows at least one good substantial reason for believing that the game will be the greatest bit of amusement ever offered in this country at any price.

Cy Cummings advertised as the champion catch-as-catch-can excise officer, will have his first opportunity to do a little plain and fancy excise work as a member of the Press Club team. Captain and Manager Steve Barry announces that he doesn't know what position Cummings will play, but that he will be found in the line-up.

Connor To Pitch. Jerome Connor will pitch for the newspaper men and John Marrinan will catch. The team will include Mike Flynn, J. R. Hamilton, Stuart Price, Robert Thackery, and Charles King.

The Board of Trade team will include W. A. Rogers, Frank E. Smith, Clarence B. Abalt, Andrew J. Walker, Michael Macdonald, Albert E. Landvoigt, Arthur A. Brandt, Richard L. Conner, Joseph T. Davis, Charles H. Pardo, and William E. Burns.

The Third District of Columbia Infantry Band will play sweet music throughout the game, especially when runs are being scored—playing music by Victor Herbert. Press Club members, for Press Club runs and music sold by Carl Droop and Percy Foster, Board of Trade members, for Board of Trade runs.

Umpire Gets Armor. Major Pullman has retired from his office at the Municipal building temporarily, and turned over the running of the job of chief of police while he studies up on the etiquette of umpiring and has himself fitted with a steel bathrobe. A detachment of the Third Infantry will be on hand, ostensibly to give an exhibition drill either before the game or at an intermission between innings. The detachment will also be used to escort players from the field to the bench, and to protect the umpire.

Only box seats are reserved. All the other seats—all within range of at least two positions on the field, provided nothing heavier than pop bottles are used, will be placed on sale at the park for two bits.

More than mere Suit Value

The valuable information we can give the young man regarding proper styles is vitally important to those who wish to dress correctly.

We make a study of young men's clothing and our offerings embody all the desirable features conceived by the master designers of this country.

If you're not sure of the model that will best suit your figure, let us guide you in selecting. This is an important matter.

Putting it over with "The Narragansett"

Here is our interpretation of the "pinch back" idea. Of it some of the most critical dressers in the city have said—

"It's the Smartest Belter I've Seen"

Because of its many style innovations it leaves the general run of pinch backs; it's essentially a better, but a glance will prove it is essentially different.

It's a thoroughgoing, high-speed young men's style—and we have the same features in a double-breasted model.

The belt is continued round to the side; the pleats are inverted; the lapels are a smaller shape, and the general effect is a higher waist line.

We simply have the "real thing."

Y. M. S. Style Clothes
$20 to $35

Superlative Value for $3.00

We're claiming that we give the best Fall Hat value in Washington for $3—offering the most attractive model, the greatest variety, and the most desirable colors.

It's a large claim—but we're "making good." The public's confidence is reflected in the enormous sales we've had since the season opened.

We've just received another shipment of the famous Stetson Hats, including their very latest models. You are familiar with Stetson qualities and prices—we shall sell these superior grades for $4.00.
